

Species Survival Fund – ARC sites

Amphibian and Reptile Conservation is one six partners working together on the New Forest Species Survival fund. This brief talk highlights the capital works carried out by Amphibian and Reptile Conservation to date, targeting lowland heathland restoration to benefit populations of native reptiles within the New Forest.